

Proportion of children under five years (0-4 years)

The population aged between 0 and 4 years is an important component of the population in the country. The Census results show that the proportion of the under 5 population was 16.2 percent of the total population. Nine regions recorded more than 18.0 percent of the population age 0-4 years. The regions are Simiyu (19.9 percent), Katavi (19.8 percent), Rukwa (19.7), Geita (19.6 percent), Kigoma (19.3 percent), Mara (19.0 percent), Tabora (18.6 Percent), Shinyanga (18.4 percent) and Kagera (18.3 percent). On the other side, five regions recorded below 14.0 percent of the population aged 0-4 years. These regions are Kilimanjaro (11.7 percent), Dar es Salaam (12.0 percent), Lindi (13.0 percent), Mtwara and Njombe (13.3 percent each).