

Proportion of private households that own radio

A radio is one of the essential tool for communication. About 62 percent of all households were found to own radios (61.6 percent). Most radios are found in about 79 percent of households in Kusini Unguja (78.6 percent). Other regions with high proportions of households with radios include Mjini Magharibi (76.8), Kilimanjaro (75.6) and Kaskazini Unguja (70.1). Simiyu recorded the lowest proportion of households which owned radios (46.6 percent) followed by Rukwa (51.4), Dodoma (51.8), Manyara (51.9), Lindi (52.8), and Mtwara (54.2).