

AFRICA STATISTICS DAY

National Bureau of Statistics (NBS) in collaboration with the Eastern Africa Statistical Training Centre (EASTC) will celebrate the African Statistics Day on 23, Nov 2015.

The day is celebrated in order to create public awareness on the role played by statisticians in the production of statistics for the African social-economic development

The theme for this year is “Better Data for Better Lives: Harnessing modern technology to enhance national statistical systems.”

The celebration will take place at the Eastern Africa Statistical Training Centre (EASTC) which is located at Changanyikeni, Dar es Salaam starting on 9:30Am.

The African Statistics Day is celebrated November 18 every year. In Tanzania this day will be celebrated on 23rd November, 2015.

THE AFRICA STATISTICS CELEBRATIONS 2015 ARE SPONSORED BY THE GOVERNMENT IN COLLABORATION WITH SOCIAL SECURITY REGULATORY AUTHORITY (SSRA).
