

ESSAY COMPETITION FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL STUDENTS IN COMMEMORATION OF AFRICA STATISTICS DAY (ASD) 2018

National Bureau Statistics (NBS) coordinates Africa Statistics Day (ASD) which is annually marked on 18th of November.

The marking of Africa Statistics Day aims at raising public awareness on important role statistics plays in planning, decision making and in evaluation of various development programs.

In Tanzania, the 2018 ASD will be celebrated on 22th November, 2018. As part of the celebrations, NBS is organizing essay competition of not more than five hundred words (500) for Dodoma Secondary Schools Students on the topic “The Role of Statistics in promoting Industrial Economy in Tanzania”. The Essay must be in Kiswahili or English language. Prize will be awarded to the best three essays.

All essays should be sent to the Director General, National Bureau of Statistics through e-mail dg@nbs.go.tz and copied to essay coordinator through e-mail mateew9@gmail.com or physically submitted at NBS Offices (Takwimu House) located at Makulu area along Jakaya Kikwete Road, before Monday 18th November, 2018.

Irenius Ruyobya
FOR: DIRECTOR GENERAL,
NATIONAL BUREAU OF STATISTICS, DODOMA.

14-11-2018